Hi all!!

Here are the final chord and lyric charts that we took to studio and concerts for the new album 'The Great Hurricane' tracks.

There may be a few errors and variations, which is part of the charm! Apologies for that, but I'm sure you'll be able to figure it all out. If you do, feel free to send any corrections to us

Thanks for buying my music, supporting the ministry, and keeping in touch!

The Refugee (Robin Mark 2016)

Perhaps a story might just ease your mind, of brave adventurers and true. Of daring deeds done in the name of love, that breaks the evil that men do. For surely love is all that you deserve. No foe to fear, no enemy Just love and shelter in another place, and light and life and liberty

Maybe bridge with chord sequence and counter-melody with flute/accordion/keys

Once of a time there was a wicked King who got some evil in his head He heard the story of a baby boy, who was to be the king instead. He vowed to chase that little infant down. Before the story came to be He made the child the target of his fear, a baby boy his enemy.

His parents picked him up and ran away, he's not so different now to you They packed their bags and fled to Nazareth, far from the people that they knew

They had some money and a horse to ride, and hoped for kindnesses and peace

Somewhere to sleep, some shelter and some food, some and light and life and liberty

For My Redeemer Lives Key D

There is a boundless Love Divine
That longed to win this heart of mine
And hold it safely for all time
Eternally secure.

Though every thing through Him was made Yet still ,for us ,the price He paid To rescue and restore again And find The Fathers love

CHORUS

Oh praise the name of Jesus Christ And praise His Glorious Sacrifice, Who once was dead, now raised to life For my Redeemer lives

He is the King who ever reigned, Yet humbly through this earthly plane He walked, His greater glory veiled To bring the Father's love

No form of comeliness had He Yet beauty more than earth had seen Was clothed in His humanity And witnessed by His love

CHORUS

Oh praise the name of Jesus Christ And praise His Glorious Sacrifice, Who once was dead, now raised to life For my Redeemer lives

Come Holy Spirit, all Divine Come fill with love this heart of mine And seal it til the end of time For my Redeemer lives

CHORUS

Oh praise the name of Jesus Christ And praise His Glorious Sacrifice, Who once was dead, now raised to life For my Redeemer lives
